DRAWING REQUIREMENTS:

Please draw the following on A3 paper. You may use any medium for this project. Should you have a portfolio that covers the criteria below, you may send it as an alternative.

You will have to demonstrate the following skills:

1. The ability to perceive depth and proportion from a perspective: Draw an interior perspective (3 dimensional drawing) of any room, e.g. Lounge, showing depth and shading.
2. The ability to render, show depth and proportion: Draw a still life in colour.
3. The ability to organise space through the use of scale and proportion: Draw a floor plan (top view) of any room or dwelling indicating windows, doors, walls, furniture and flooring.
4. Any additional item (or pictures of the item if the item is 3 dimensional) that you have designed yourself and you are proud of e.g. a dress, chair, clay figurine etc

QUESTIONNAIRE:

Please answer the following questions:

- Name a South African interior you wish you had designed and give us a reason why you find it special. (Restaurant/ domestic/ office - your choice)
- Name your favourite international interior and give us a reason why you find it special. (Research in magazines or books)
- Which local or international designer do you admire? Explain why they impress you.
- Which three words would you use to describe yourself.
- Which three words would describe your design preferences:
- What three designed objects would you put in your own interior (money plays no role).
- What in your opinion is the difference between Interior Design and Interior Decorating?
- What type of products or interiors do you see yourself designing when you graduate?
